

Satellite radio is a different media and forum. As a paid customer, I should be the judge of the programming, not the NAB. The ability to get clear (digital) concise and timely updates is great. The AMBER alert is also sent out on these channels. Think about how many million more eyes are out there.